

Crowle & Ealand Town Council

Mayor's Party

Mayor Ron Stewart held a very successful party which raised £500 on the night to which he added the unspent Mayoral expense allowance of £500, as he chose to fund his time in office personally. The final sum of the charity pot this year was a £1000 which was equally split between Scunthorpe Hospital Ward 18 and Lyndsey Lodge Hospice. Many thanks on behalf of the Mayor, Council and charities to all those who attended and purchased raffle tickets and for the kind donations of prizes from local businesses, individuals and councillors.

Dr John Bruce Trophy

Also on the night, the Dr John Bruce Trophy for Outstanding Voluntary Contribution was handed over by last year's recipient, John Briggs, to Chris Pidd as Chair of The Crowle and Ealand Playing Fields Committee who have worked tirelessly over the years to run the facilities used by many in Godnow Road. The Pavillion has recently been refurbished with new decoration, floor and kitchen and the addition of acoustic absorbers to make this another fantastic venue for our residents to use. Please contact the committee if you wish to view or hire the hall www.facebook.com/crowleepfa
