F/184/20 Ward Report

Numerous flooding has happened across Crowle and Ealand. Some issues believed to have been previously resolved so these are also highlighted for review. The ones flooding with contaminated waste are being tackled as priority.

Severn Trent have been on sites pumping out and will continue to do so. Another area of issue being addressed are landowners with riparian responsibilities not maintaining the drains. These matters are being taken to the next meeting this week. The decision for the overhaul is due to be released this month and the Ward Councillors in conjunction with North Lincolnshire Council drainage and flooding members will be putting the strong case for this forward.

Several areas across North Lincolnshire are also majorly affected.

F/185/20 Feedback from External Meetings
