YC/033/23 Invited Guests Speaker – Daniel Marsh

Mr Daniel Marsh from North Lincolnshire Council will speak to the Youth Council on the 'Youth Voice and British Youth Council'.

Mr Marsh explained the North Lincolnshire Council Youth Council and how they fit into the bigger picture at the unitary council and where they slot in relation to the MPs and parliament.

Mr Marsh raised awareness on various organisations and schemes aimed at children, the main ones being:

- FEARLESS which is the child version of Crimestoppers where children are able to report crimes directly via the service.
- Outings opportunities available to youth council members to embrace team building and spirit.
- The Young Member of Parliament elections that will take place in Feb 2024 and how the process runs

Question posed to Mr Daniels:

Does antisocial behaviour get put forward to North Lincs Youth Council?

Response: Yes, they do look at various issues in conjunction with the local police. These extended to vaping, playgrounds and schools.

Cllr Reed will take away some questions and concerns regarding 'The Pitts'.

Mr Marsh was thanked for his contribution.

YC/034/23 Planting Area

TC to draft a letter for parental/guardian consent to permit YC members to undertake planting and ongoing gardening of the Community Hall planting area and recruit further volunteers.

The Community Hall are happy to work together as a joint venture to plant and maintain the area. A meeting to discuss the project is suggested.

Safeguarding is to be factored into the project to ensure members are correctly care for during any works.
